KILLED ON A NAPHTHA LAUNCH.

A Fishing Party of Eight Start on a Sunday Excursion and One Alone Remains.

New York, July 13.—A yachting party composed of a number of New-Yorkers left thirty-third street, Brooklyn, at 7 o'clock A. M. yesterday. They were on board the steam launch Agnes Dean. Before they got through with the day they had some exciting adventures. It was about 2 o'clock in the afternoon when one of the party saw a man clinging to a buoy bobbing up and down in the water off towards Coney Island. They lowered a small boat and with great difficulty contrived to get the man from his dangerous resting place. The rescued man said that he was Captain White, of East Rockaway. He had been on the Ethel, a naphtha launch, when it was said he had been chartered by a Mr. Dennis, a wealthy retired diamond merchant of Brooklyn. A party of eight had started on a fishing excursion early in the morning from Rockaway for a day's fishing. The Ethel had cruised about until it reached a point some way out from the shore of Long Beach. Then White said a terrible explosion occurred. It seemed as if all the bottom of the boat was suddenly lifted up and blown into the air. Every person on board was hurled into the water. He sank with the rest. When he came to the surface he saw nothing but wreckage. There was not a body in sight. Just as he was tossed on the crest of a particularly high wave he caught a glimpse of a buoy in the distance. It seemed to him, he said, describing this as a dream, that this buoy was about four miles away. I swam for what seemed an age, and at length I got to the buoy. White's body is not only unburied where the sun had a chance to get at it, but he is black and blue in many places. Some of these black and blue marks may be due to the force of the explosion.

An Effort to Commute the Sentence.

PITTSBURGH, Pa., July 13.—Col. Archibald Blakely, the attorney for the three Hungarians convicted at a recent term of the Quarter Sessions Court of riot and murder in the first degree, will, at the next meeting of the pardon board, make a strong effort to have the sentence imposed upon the Hungarians commuted to life imprisonment. The startling discovery has been made that the three Hungarians, who were sentenced to hang, were not the same as the three who were sentenced to life imprisonment. The pardon board, which is composed of the governor, the chief justice, the judges of the supreme court, and the members of the executive council, will meet on Wednesday next. It is expected that the pardon board will grant the commutation of the sentence of the three Hungarians.

IT WILL SURELY BE CAMPBELL

Little Doubt that the Present Ohio Governor Will Be Easily Renominated.

Many Anti-Campbellites, However, Have Assembled at Cleveland and Are Engaged Plying Wires for Kline, Neal and McMahon.

Everything Points to the Customary Democratic Rough-and-Tumble Fight.

The Governor's Friends Believe They Have Enough Votes, with Some to Spare, and Will Run the Convention to Suit Themselves.

PLOTTING FOR SPOILS

Some Ohio Democrats Anxious to Put Up Anybody to Beat Campbell.

CLEVELAND, July 13.—The Democratic State convention will be a short affair. Whether it will be sweet will depend entirely upon the temper of the anti-Campbellites. Although the faithful were notified in the official call to assemble tomorrow, it has been decided to defer the inaugural session till Wednesday morning. Tomorrow the committees on credentials, permanent organization and resolutions will get together and cut and dry the work assigned to them, and when the body assembles on Wednesday it will be with the intention, on the part of the powers that be, of rushing through the entire programme, from the temporary chairman—Thurman—to the nomination, without even five minutes' break for a bite or a drop. This at least is the programme of the Campbellites. Like one other celebrated man, Governor Campbell appears to be loved by his friends "for the enemies he has made." The latter this morning appeared to be legion. The woods are full of them. This is because the anti-Campbellites have taken time by the forelock and are first on the field. The rank and file of the untried, the eight-tenths of the county delegates that were been instructed for Campbell will not begin to pour in until to-night. Tomorrow the battle will be waged furiously. The opponents of the Governor, although greatly in the minority, rely on superior organization.

The logic of the situation has panned all the anti-Campbell men to come under the battle-cries of "Anything to beat Campbell," and the question with them is no longer which of the Governor's competitors has the most votes, but which is the most available candidate and the most likely to succeed as a dark horse. To this query the answer is given by the fact that Virgil P. Kline is absent, on his way to Europe; too far away to give pledges and promises, and his pronounced low tariff convictions and eminent campaigning qualities mark him as the most available candidate of the opposition, since the feud engendered between the Neal and Campbell factions gives the former little chance of increasing his strength in the convention.

SON OF THE "OLD ROMAN"

Hon. Allen Thurman, son of the "Old Roman," is to be temporary chairman, as this selection is made by the State central committee. It is apparent to all, except the friends of other candidates, that Governor James E. Campbell will be renominated on the first ballot, although friends of Hon. Lawrence Neal still insist that their candidate has a fighting chance. Hamilton county will cast a solid vote for Neal unless the strenuous efforts that are being made by the Campbell men to have the nomination go to the Governor by acclamation, should finally induce Neal and Kline to withdraw in the latter part of the week.

The feeling against Campbell among Hamilton county delegates is so strong, however, that it is a very sanguine man, indeed, who would venture to predict that Campbell's friends are complaining of a canard which they say is being circulated by the enemies of the Governor. The fact is that he contemplates declining the nomination after winning the fight, and that the Campbell men are then to throw the nomination to the anti-Campbellites. Congressmen-elect Thomas L. Johnson, of Cleveland, has returned from Europe, and has wired that he will be in the city on Wednesday. The indications this afternoon were that anti-Campbell men will make an attempt to combine with the Campbell men to have the nomination go to the Governor by acclamation, should finally induce Neal and Kline to withdraw in the latter part of the week.

ANTI-CAMPBELLITES PLOTTING

It now looks as though the anti-Campbell delegates, when nominations are declared in order on Wednesday, will ask for an informal ballot, but that the Governor's friends will oppose this and demand business and a formal ballot. In this event Campbell will be found, before the roll is closed, to have three-fifths of the votes of the convention. But the result will not be announced without many changes. The Neal men, it is understood, will, with the consent of their leader, desert their candidate and go solidly to Kline, in the hope of creating a stampede of lukewarm Campbell delegates to the Cuyahoga county candidate and ensuring his nomination. If the logic of the situation does not happen to suggest Mr. Kline as the most available candidate, the strength of the opposition may be thrown to either John A. McMahon, of Dayton, or Hon. Tom L. Johnson, the free-trade Congressman, of Cleveland. Despite all these clever political maneuvers, however, the indications are that the Campbell phalanx will remain practically unbroken, and that the Governor will be renominated on the first ballot.

"In my opinion," said Chairman Norton, of the Democratic State central committee, to-night, "Campbell will be nominated on the first ballot. The opposition will endeavor to combine on Kline or McMahon, or some other dark horse, and try to force a stampede, but they will be unsuccessful. The people have spoken, and Campbell is the man for the job. The result of this convention is now a simple question of addition, not enthusiasm."

"The indications for various other State offices to be nominated, but the chief interest, naturally, centers in the governorship. If Lieut.-Gov. V. V. Marquis, of Logan county, expresses himself as not desiring a renomination, the result may be the placing of the ex-territorial reformer, practical farmer and ex-Congressman John Quincy Smith, of Clinton county, on the ticket for second honors. Mr. Marquis could, it is probable, have a renomination without opposition; but, having had the honors, there is some doubt whether he will seek the renomination. Financially, the place is not to be considered worthy of a contest, and the honor, therefore, is the only allurement for the ambitious gentlemen of the State.

THE ATTORNEY-GENERALSHIP

For Attorney-general, John W. Canady, of Wood county, and State Senator Corcoran are the principal candidates. The former has been considered as a prominent candidate for several weeks, while the latter was only recently sprung for the place. To-day John P. Bailey, of Putnam county, arrived, and taking up quarters at the Hotel, also announced himself as a candidate for Attorney-general, so that the contest for the office promises to be a very lively one. Ex-Congressman I. R. Peckinbaugh, of Wayne, Daniel Kunzel, of DeKalb, and H. W. Maise, of Franklin county, are mentioned for nomination for Auditor of State, and others are likely to come out within the next twenty-four hours. C. S. Ackerman, of Mansfield, seems to be the favorite for the treasurer's nomination since the decision of Lieut. W. V. Armstrong for this city, but it is likely that he may find several gentlemen contending for the post, as the office is a desirable one to be presented to the convention. Prof. C. C. Miller, the present State Commissioner of Common Schools, is one of the men having a sure thing. His nomination by acclamation is conceded by all. Besides the offices mentioned above candidates are to be nominated for Supreme Judge, member of the Board of Public Works and Food and Dairy Commissioner.

The platform upon which the coming battle is to be waged is the subject of much discussion, and Chairman Norton, of the State central committee, and other prominent politicians of the State have held several conferences on the subject. It has been decided that the party will stand by its position of a year ago on all leading issues. The Campbell administration will be commended, and the Harrison national administration and the Fifty-first Congress will be denounced for profligacy and extravagance. The tariff plank, it is understood, will be given a prominent place.

"We demand the reduction of tariff taxes and we will continue the battle for tariff reform until the cause of the people is triumphant. All money taxed by law should go into the public treasury. Tariff taxes should be for revenue only. All so-called protective tariff taxes are dishonest, and should be abolished. They place the masses to enrich the few. They have crippled agriculture, retarded manufacturing, created trusts, destroyed commerce and corrupted our law-makers. We denounce the McKinley tariff law passed by the billion-dollar Congress as an iniquitous and oppressive measure, and an injury to the American farmer and laborer."

The party will also congratulate itself upon the passage of the recent Australian ballot system, but upon the financial question there will be division of sentiment. While the free-trade sentiment is strong, there is a lively opposition to it, and many Democrats are urging that the financial question be not made an issue at all.

MORMONS DEFEATED

Enthusiastic Liberals Make Increased Gains and Carry Salt Lake City.

SALT LAKE CITY, U. T., July 13.—Enthusiastic Liberals are making the city ring tonight because of a victory in the school election there to-day. The Mormons and allies made a desperate effort to capture the board of education, but the Liberals held their own, carrying by an increased majority the precincts carried by them heretofore, and losing those they lost before by reduced numbers. The result is that the members of the board, and carry the city, as a whole, by 700 majority.

KANSAS DEMOCRATS AGAINST THE ALLIANCE

TOPEKA, Kan., July 13.—The Democratic editors, who have been holding a meeting here, have decided to prepare an address to the people of Kansas, and also warn the Democrats of the Nation against the Farmers' Alliance. A committee was appointed to draft an address and another meeting provided for July 27, at which time the committee will report. In the meantime the Democratic editors will begin a systematic and determined warfare on the Alliance.

THE DAY AT CAPE MAY

The President Receives a Delegation from Atlantic City Asking Him to Visit Them.

CAPE MAY POINT, N. J., July 13.—A committee representing the residents and cottagers of Atlantic City, headed by Mayor Hoffman, ex-Adjutant-general Daniel Hastings, of Pennsylvania; William R. Leeds, marshal eastern district of Pennsylvania, and William L. Johnson, postmaster of Baltimore, arrived here this morning for the purpose of inviting the President to visit their city. The committee received from the President an invitation for the present, stating that he was here for rest and quiet and that he would be glad to visit them if he visited one place he would be obliged to visit others to which he was invited. The President was busy this morning examining a number of applications for pardons for offenses against the postal and polygraph laws.

The President appointed the following postmasters: Bement, Ill., John McNamee, removed for violation of postal laws and regulations, keeping disorderly and unsystematic office and other charges; Francis A. Jones appointed in his place; Motz, Pa., J. J. Jones, removed for the unexpired term of Norman J. Stedman, deceased; Delphos, O., Charles E. Washburne, in place of David E. Baxter, removed.

SHE WAS RICH AND CRAZY

More of the Wealth of Lena Weinberg Found Hidden in a Piano-Stool.

WINONA, Minn., July 13.—Nearly two years ago a sensation was caused here by the suicide of Lena Weinberg, for thirty years housekeeper of the old Huffman House, and the discovery after her death of about $12,000 in gold coin stowed away under false bottoms in her trunks. With this money she was about to return to her native land, Sweden, and had shipped her trunks to Baltimore, but in a moment of insane frenzy took her own life, just as the train arrived for departure. The money was paid over to her heirs in Sweden. A woman so miserably lonely and alone, and the first story. On Saturday evening her executor, E. A. Goetzten, had his attention drawn to another piano-stool that had been used by Lena, and taking it to pieces, there was a further sum of $18,000 which the miserly housekeeper had evidently stowed away. There are serious theories as to where she obtained so much money. One of them assigns the real ownership to Colonel Cockrell, the former proprietor of the Huffman House. It is probable a lawsuit will follow.

COUNCIL OF EDUCATION

Estimated that 5,000 New Delegates Arrived at Toronto Yesterday.

TORONTO, Ont., July 13.—At this morning's session of the National Council of Education George P. Brown, of Chicago, editor of the Illinois School Journal, read the report of the committee on pedagogics, the subject being "The Education of the Will." The first nominations in the council for membership were made, the election resulting as follows: H. S. Jones, of Lincoln, Neb., re-elected; W. N. Hallman, of La Porte, Ind., re-elected; Charles Degarmo, of Champaign, Ill., in place of Josiah L. Pickard, who retired; and Nicholas Murray Butler, of New York, in place of N. R. H. Dawson, who also retires voluntarily. The teachers' gathering is daily increasing in magnitude, and to almost overwhelming proportions. It is estimated that about five thousand teachers arrived to-day. They were from the Southern, Middle and New England States. New York and Pennsylvania, that were yesterday poorly represented, have at least a hundred delegates. Tennessee and Arkansas have sent on to-day 150 and 300 delegates, respectively. There is a big fight on as to where the next convention will be held. Helena, Ark., seems to be leading, with Seattle a good second, and Boston and Saratoga in the distance.

MR. BLAINE INTERVIEWED

He Denies the Sensational Reports of Correspondents as to the State of His Health.

BAR HARBOR, July 13.—The Associated Press correspondent conversed with Secretary Blaine a few minutes this morning. "I am as well as usual to-day," he said. "The sensational reports about my health sent to the press all over the country are lies. I am not a sick man. They have magnified a slight illness into something very serious. I am taking no medicine whatever. I go out every day, and often twice a day. I eat whatever I desire; I rise at 8 o'clock and retire at 10 or 11 P. M. In short, I live in my usual manner. There is nothing more to say."

Mr. Blaine spoke in his accustomed quick, unhesitating manner. His voice showing no trace of weakness. He took a long ride this morning in an open carriage through the principal streets and some distant parts of the country. He gets into the carriages without assistance, sits erect, recognizes acquaintances as in former years, and does not seem fatigued after a long ride. Emmett Blaine said this morning: "My father is constantly improving. We no longer consider him a sick man." Mr. Blaine was out driving at 6 o'clock this afternoon in an open carriage. He was holding the reins, as he has been doing occasionally for several days. His physician, Dr. J. Madison Taylor, said to-night: "Mr. Blaine is improving very rapidly. Within a few days he has seemed to take a fresh hold upon life and health. He has a strong constitution, and no one who sees him can fail to notice a rapid improvement almost daily."

Those near the Secretary feel confident that he will return to Washington as a hale, hearty man, and able to enter into active political life.

CAUGHT A SMUGGLER

Canadian Officials Discover a Sloop Loaded with Chinamen for the States.

OTTAWA, Ont., July 13.—The collector of customs at Victoria informs the department of the seizure of the sloop Flora, of Seattle, Wash., for neglecting to report inward. A fine of $400 was imposed. Two customs officers located the vessel in a sheltered cove a few miles from Victoria. There appeared to be no one on board the craft, which was lying some one hundred yards off the shore. The officers called out, and a man appeared on deck and asked what was wanted. They informed him that they would like to see him, and he pulled toward the shore in a skiff. When within about twenty feet of the beach he seemed to become possessed with a spirit of caution and demanded their business. When he learned that they were customs officers he started to pull quickly toward his vessel, but altered his mind when the officers covered him with their revolvers. They then commanded him to row ashore and compelled the man to pull them out to the sloop, which they found to be a smuggler with a load of Chinese intended for the United States. There were ten Chinamen on board, and six more on shore ready to embark. The captain, who gave his name as Alfred Sotterman, said that he was about to take eighteen Chinamen to the United States. He was given thirty days in which to pay the fine, at the end of which time, if the fine be not paid, the vessel will be confiscated and sold to the highest bidder.

MONEY BARDSLEY DIDN'T GET

The Farmers' and Mechanics' Bank Honors a Joint Check of City and State Treasurers.

PHILADELPHIA, July 13.—The Farmers' and Mechanics' Bank has honored the joint checks of City Treasurer Wright and State Treasurer Boyer on the funds placed there on deposit, and embracing licenses and personal taxes, the common moneys of the city and State. The funds were deposited with the bank during ex-Treasurer Bardsley's absence by the chief clerk to the credit of the city and the State jointly. Of the moneys drawn from the bank, $322,745.50 of the license fees collected prior to May 25 last, and $73,801.50 from the same source, collected subsequently to the above date, were transferred to State Treasurer Boyer as the property of the State, in which the city had no interest. In addition to the above there is still remaining in the bank of license fees $501,078.75 and $4,232.54, collections made before May 25 last, and $3,804 collected since that date. Also of personal tax $35,009.45, paid in prior to May 25, and $156,025.14 since said date remain in the bank. These sums will be allowed to the city and State by a general conference of the officials, it can be determined what percentage of these amounts is due each, the city and State. The city and State are to-day paying twenty-two suits in the United States Circuit Court for Robert M. Yardley, receiver of the Keystone National Bank, against holders of notes which have gone to protest and against the indorsers. The notes range in amount from $50 to $4,000. Suit has also been brought by receiver Yardley against C. C. Haines to recover on an overdraft on the bank of $5,551.

DEATH OF AN ACROBAT

One of the Famous Hanlon Volters' Neck Broken in a Fall from a Trapeze.

CLINTON, Ia., July 13.—During the afternoon performance of Adam Forepaugh's show the crane broke on which Wm. Hanlon, of Hanlon brothers, gymnasts, was performing. He fell to the ground, thirty feet, missing the net and striking upon his head. He broke his neck, dying almost instantly. He was thirty-one years old, born in London, and has for twenty-four years been associated with the Hanlon volters. Last August he had a similar accident at the Academy of Music, New York, falling from the dome and breaking two parietal bones. His work was upon the horizontal bar, in the center, Robert and James Hanlon doing the flying trapeze. Robert and James will remain with Forepaugh through the balance of the season. William left a wife, but had no children. Coroner Meyers impaneled a jury, who returned a verdict of death, exonerating manager Cooper from all blame.

The financial report and financial exhibit of Dr. Hartsell, the corresponding secretary, will show that $322,656.44 were received during the year. FIRE AT BY A MADMAN

An Attempt to Assassinate President Carnot of France at a Celebration.

PARIS, July 13.—There was considerable excitement to-day throughout Paris, caused by the report that President Carnot had been shot. This rumor proved upon investigation to be untrue, but there was foundation for the report.

The President was present to-day at the ceremonies of the official opening of a new thoroughfare, the Avenue de la Republique, where he received an enthusiastic welcome. Suddenly a man, wild-eyed and making insane gestures, forced his way through the crowd and pushed past the soldiers on duty about the spot where the ceremonies were taking place. Over through the police cordon he rushed to the carriage in which the President had driven up to the new avenue and fired a pistol at M. Carnot. As he did so the man shouted: "I'll prove that there are more Bastilles to be demolished."

President Carnot was undoubtedly alarmed at what appeared to be a direct attempt upon his life, but the President was unhurt and so regained his entire presence of mind. The man who fired the shot was promptly arrested by the police, and such was the manner of the crowd present that the officers had the greatest difficulty in protecting their prisoner from becoming the victim of popular fury which he had excited. As it was, it required the services of a strong force of police to escort the man in safety to the nearest police station. Upon arrival there the man's examination soon disclosed the fact that he was a madman and that he had just been released from confinement in a lunatic asylum.

EMBRACED BY THE QUEEN

Kaiser Wilhelm Bidden an Affectionate Good-Bye Before Setting Out for London.

LONDON, July 13.—The Emperor of Germany this morning rode through the most interesting parts of Hatfield, Lord Salisbury having issued orders to the effect that every part of the park was to be thrown open in order to enable the Emperor to roam in any direction he desired. Upon his return to Hatfield House the Emperor lunched in the Marble Hall. All the ambassadors and Ministers and their wives, and Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Chamberlain, were present. It is reported that the Emperor has invited the Prince and Princess of Wales to visit Germany in full state during the coming autumn, and that the Prince and Princess have, with the consent of Queen Victoria, accepted the invitation. After luncheon the Emperor bade farewell to Lord Salisbury and the latter's guests, declaring that he was highly pleased with his visit, and left Hatfield House for Windsor Castle in order to bid adieu to the Queen. Upon his arrival at Windsor Castle the Emperor was met by an escort of the Life Guards, who conducted him to the castle. The Queen met the imperial traveler at the entrance to her private apartments. Her Majesty warmly embraced her distinguished grandson, who remained an hour in conversation with her, after the expiration of that time the Emperor took leave of her Majesty. The parting seemed to show that the most cordial sentiments animated both their Majesties.

After leaving Windsor Castle the Emperor returned to London. The Empress of Germany to-day started for Falmouth, where her children are staying. The Emperor, escorted by a detachment of Life Guards, accompanied the Empress to the railroad station, and bade her an affectionate farewell. The Emperor dined this evening at the house of Lord Dudley, with a select number of the aristocratic circle. To-night Emperor William will be at Scotland, Count Von Hatzfeldt, the staff of the German embassy, the Prince of Wales, the Duke of Connaught, and the Duke of Cambridge being his farwell at the station. The Duke of Connaught entered the saloon of the imperial carriage, where he remained in conversation with the Emperor for a few minutes. The Emperor's prolonged cheering as the train departed. The Emperor affably waved his hand in farewell, instead of recognition, as he usually does, and he was accompanied by his usual military salute. The German Empress will temporarily reside at Falmouth, and the German Emperor will be at Falmouth. The German Crown Prince and his two brothers met the Empress on her arrival at the station, and drove with her to the South Beach House in an open landau. Masses of roses were thrown into the carriage by the crowds of people assembled along the route.

Sealed Friendship

BERLIN, July 13.—The Vossische Zeitung regards the visit of the Emperor to Hatfield house, the residence of Lord Salisbury, as something beyond a mere act of courtesy. It says that the Emperor, accompanied by German statesmen, has met the chief English statesmen, and that both countries are convinced that the conference at Hatfield house sealed the assurances of friendship. The Zeitung concludes by contrasting the coldness of the Russians with the warmth of the English reception. The enthusiastic reception given to the Emperor in England, it says, proves that it was spontaneous and not evoked by the committee, and shows the interests and inclinations of England and Germany go together.

BRITAIN'S WORLD'S FAIR DISPLAY

Sir Henry Wood Believes London Merchants Will Expense $1,000,000.

LONDON, July 13.—It has been decided that the royal commission to represent Great Britain at the world's fair will be composed of the Council of the Society of Arts, which carries with it the prestige of having the Prince of Wales as its president and Sir Richard Webster, the Attorney-general, as its chairman. The commission contains many members who are well pointed to insure a successful issue. The appointment of the council as a commission also implied that Sir Henry Wood will be its secretary. The council is a fluctuating body, some of its members retiring annually, when others are elected to fill the vacancies caused by their retirement. The royal commission has received a grant of $125,000, which is less in amount than any previous grant made for a similar purpose. The willingness of the council to accept this small sum is due to the experience gained at the Paris exposition, for which the government made no grant. The council is confident of having sufficient
